BRIEF SUMMARY

Hi, Im Milan, a college student with a strong foundation in computer science and a deep passion for technology, data, and innovation. My academic journey has equipped me with diverse skills, and Im particularly fascinated by machine learning, software development, and programming. I enjoy designing efficient solutions, writing clean code, and exploring the logical intricacies of intelligent systems. Beyond the technical aspects, I love delving into the ever-evolving world of technology and uncovering its limitless possibilities.
